

Operating for Christ

SUMMER 2005
VOL. II
ISSUE I

Where Does the Money Go?

We want you, our supporters, to know exactly where your money goes. With that in mind, here is a partial run-down on how the Foundation is currently supporting the Baptist Medical Center in Nalerigu, Ghana, West Africa:

We are now contributing to the Center's operating cost—we sent $25,000 in May and have asked Dr. Faile to give us a general idea as to how much is spent on various items (medication, electricity, supplies, etc.).

A doctor has recently volunteered to travel to Nalerigu and provide help at the BMC. The Foundation is currently in the process of coordinating with this doctor and Dr. Faile on the logistics and support of this service.

The Foundation is partnering with Carpenters for Christ to help with a hospital renovation project.

We also want to extend a special thanks to Vickie Barnes who donated $3,000 for new beds for the pediatric ward and Dr. Doug Parkin who donated $3,000 for a motorcycle for a Nalerigu pastor.

The newly constructed pediatric unit.

The Hewitt Family

Earl and Mona Hewitt have been in Nalerigu since 1994. Prior to this, Earl was appointed as a single career missionary to Nalerigu in 1989.

The Hewitts

Earl is from Mississippi and Mona is from Arkansas. They have three children: Emily, 9; Abby, 7; and Benton, 4.

Earl works as a physician at BMC and Mona homeschools their children. She is also involved in teaching Bible stories at the Nutrition Centre at the hospital.

The Hewitts like to have their children involved in helping at the hospital. Earl often finds young patients for them to visit. "It is not always the medicine that makes them better, but rather the personal touch we can offer," said Earl.
