

Operating for Christ

WINTER 2014
VOL. XII
ISSUE II

Welcome to William and Heidi Haun

Welcome to William and Heidi Haun who arrived in Nalerigu this October. Heidi is a general surgeon appointed by the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to serve at BMC, and her husband William is a media specialist. See their blog at: www.haunsinafrica.com. William has updated the Baptist Medical Centre website! Please visit it at: www.baptistmedicalcenter.org.

Welcome to Francis Ackom

Francis takes over the volunteer coordinator position from Peter & Erin Faile who finished their year with BMC in October. Francis arranges housing and transportation for the volunteers, oversees the housing and staff, and serves as our onsite representative at BMC. We thank him for his good work!

Welcome to Tim and Lori Cahill

Tim and Lori Cahill are family physicians serving a 2 year post residency program through World Medical Mission a part of Samaritan's Purse: www.samaritanspurse.org/what-we-do/world-medical-mission-2/

We thank them for their service!

Pray for Leadership

The turnover of Baptist Medical Center from the International Mission Board to the Ghana Baptist Convention took place on October 14. Please pray for leadership and wisdom for those making decisions for BMC and pray for the hospital to continue to be a beacon of Christ for the people of Northern Ghana.

Shipment to BMC

The Faile Foundation shipped a 40 foot container to BMC in April of this year. Faile purchases totaled over $30,000 and included 2 autoclaves, 3 birthing beds, 2 neonatal incubators, 2 operating room lights, 4 surgical suction units, and multiple oxygen concentrators. Donated items included over 40 wheelchairs, several pieces of furniture, and a variety of donated medical goods such as gloves, gowns, and dressing materials. We thank Lake Pointe Church in Rockwall, Texas for providing many of the donated items!
